In addition, CSC Nouvelon would like to acknowledge the excellent work accomplished by five principals who are stepping down after several years of service. We wish the following a well-deserved retirement: Suzanne Lapointe, Principal at École secondaire du Sacré-Cœur (Sudbury); Jocelyne Leclair, Principal at Carrefour Options+; André Paquette, Principal at École Jean-Paul II (Val Caron); Lise Dewar, Principal at École St-Pierre (Sudbury); and Chantal Paquette, Vice-Principal at École Alliance St-Joseph (Chelmsford).

"We will greatly benefit from a continued stability as well as a renewal among our leaders in our elementary and secondary French-language Catholic schools during the 2024-2025 school year," stated Mr. Paul Henry, Director of Education and Secretary-Treasurer at CSC Nouvelon. "Our school principals and vice-principals act as catalysts for our Catholic professional learning community. We greatly value the capabilities and leadership skills that enable them to engage our students and staff in raising their standards."
