- (c) ‘owner’ includes:
 - (i) a person who keeps, possesses or harbours an animal; or
 - (ii) the person responsible for the custody of a minor if the minor is the owner of an animal;

but does not include:

- (iii) a veterinarian registered pursuant to The Veterinarians Act, 1987 who is keeping or harbouring an animal for the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of a disease of or an injury to the animal; or
- (iv) a municipality, the Saskatchewan Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, a local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals or a Humane Society, with respect to an animal shelter or impoundment facility operated by any of them;
- (d) ‘peace officer’ means a peace officer as defined by the Criminal Code;
- (e) ‘provocation’ means an act done intentionally for the purpose of provoking an animal.

“Declaration of dangerous animal

337.2(1) On hearing a complaint that an animal in a city is dangerous, a judge, or a council if the council has adopted a bylaw pursuant to subsection 337.8(2), may declare the animal to be dangerous if the judge or the council is satisfied on reasonable grounds that:

- (a) the animal, without provocation, in a vicious or menacing manner, chased or approached a person or domestic animal in an apparent attitude of attack;

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

- (b) the animal has a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack without provocation, to cause injury or to otherwise threaten the safety of persons or domestic animals;
 - (c) the animal has, without provocation, bitten, inflicted injury, assaulted or otherwise attacked a person or domestic animal; or
 - (d) the animal is owned primarily or in part for the purpose of fighting or is trained for fighting.
- (2) For the purposes of proceedings pursuant to this section and section 337.3, an animal is presumed not to have been provoked, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.
- (3) No animal shall be declared dangerous because of an action described in clause (1)(a), (b) or (c) that occurred while the animal was:
- (a) acting in the performance of police work; or
 - (b) working as a guard dog on commercial property while:
 - (i) securely enclosed on the property by a fence or other barrier sufficient to prevent the escape of the animal and the entry of young children; and
 - (ii) defending that property against a person who was committing an offence.
- (4) If a judge makes an order pursuant to subsection (1), the owner of an animal complained of, if known, shall be served with notice of a hearing pursuant to subsection (1), but the judge may make an order pursuant to subsection (5) in the absence of the owner if the owner fails to appear.
- (5) If an animal is declared to be dangerous pursuant to subsection (1):
- (a) the judge or council shall make an order that includes one or more of the following requirements, as the judge or council considers appropriate:
 - (i) the owner shall keep the animal in an enclosure that complies with prescribed criteria;
 - (ii) if the owner removes the animal from the enclosure, the owner shall muzzle and leash it in accordance with prescribed criteria and keep it under the owner's direct control and supervision;
 - (iii) the owner shall obtain and keep in effect liability insurance in the prescribed amount to cover damage or injury caused by the animal;
 - (iv) the owner shall display a sign, in the prescribed form and manner, on his or her property warning of the presence of the animal and shall continue to display that sign in good condition so long as the animal is present on the property;

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

- (v) the owner shall comply with the regulations and the Health of Animals Act (Canada) with respect to the detection and control of rabies;
 - (vi) if the animal is moved to any other municipality, the owner shall notify the designated officer in the other municipality;
 - (vii) if the animal is to be sold or given away, the owner shall:
 - (A) notify any prospective owner that the animal has been declared dangerous, before it is sold or given away; and
 - (B) notify the designated officer in the municipality of the contact information of any new owner of the animal;
 - (viii) the owner shall have the animal tattooed in the prescribed manner;
 - (ix) the owner shall have the animal spayed or neutered;
 - (x) the owner shall take any other measures to reduce the risk that the animal poses to public health or safety; or
- (b) the judge may order that the animal be destroyed or otherwise disposed of at the owner's expense and shall, in that case, give directions with respect to the destruction or other disposition.
- (6) Any order made pursuant to subsection (5) must be proportional to the risk that the animal poses to public health or safety.
- (7) An order issued pursuant to this section continues to apply if the animal is sold or given to a new owner or is moved to any other municipality governed by this Act, The Municipalities Act or The Northern Municipalities Act, 2010.
- (8) An owner against whom an order has been made pursuant to subclause (5)(a)(iii) may apply to the judge who made the order for a waiver, and the judge may waive compliance with subclause (5)(a)(iii), on any terms and conditions that the judge considers reasonable, if the judge is satisfied that the owner is unable to comply with the requirements of that clause for a reason other than his or her financial circumstances.
- (9) An owner or complainant who feels aggrieved by an order made pursuant to subsection (5) or (8) may appeal the order:
- (a) to a provincial court judge by way of a new trial, if the order was made by a justice of the peace;
 - (b) to the court, if the order was made by a provincial court judge, on the grounds that it:
 - (i) is erroneous in point of law;
 - (ii) is in excess of jurisdiction; or
 - (iii) constitutes a refusal or failure to exercise jurisdiction; or
 - (c) to the city, if the order was made by the council, in accordance with the animal control bylaw mentioned in subsection 337.8(2).

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

(10) A person who appeals pursuant to clause (9)(a) or (b) shall, within 7 days after the date of the order being appealed from, file a notice of appeal with the judge or court being appealed to, and the provisions of Part XXVII of the Criminal Code apply, with any necessary modification.

(11) A person who feels aggrieved by a decision of a provincial court judge made with respect to an appeal pursuant to clause (9)(a) may appeal the decision to the court on any grounds set out in clause (9)(b), and subsection (10) applies to the appeal.

“Offences and penalties re animals

337.3(1) Any person who owns an animal for the purpose of fighting, or trains, torments, badgers, baits or otherwise uses an animal for the purpose of causing or encouraging the animal to make unprovoked attacks on persons or domestic animals is guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who displays a prescribed sign warning of the presence of a dangerous animal and who is not acting on an order made pursuant to subsection 337.2(5) or has not received the permission of a council to display the sign is guilty of an offence.

(3) Any person who does not comply with any part of an order made against him or her pursuant to subsection 337.2(5) or (8) is guilty of an offence.

(4) Any person who owns an animal that, without provocation, attacks, assaults, wounds, bites, injures or kills a person or domestic animal is guilty of an offence.

(5) A person who is guilty of an offence pursuant to this section is liable on summary conviction to:

- (a) a fine of not more than $10,000;
- (b) imprisonment for not more than six months;
- (c) an order pursuant to subsection 337.2(5); or
- (d) a penalty consisting of any combination of clauses (a) to (c).

(6) A person may appeal an order or conviction pursuant to this section by filing a notice of appeal with the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan or the court, as the case may be, within 7 days after the date of the order or conviction, and the provisions of Part XXVII of the Criminal Code apply, with any necessary modification.

“Destruction order

337.4(1) Unless the owner otherwise agrees, every order for destruction of an animal shall state that it shall not be implemented for 8 days.

(2) If an appeal is taken against an order for the destruction of an animal, the application of the order is stayed pending the disposition of the appeal.

(3) If the judge on appeal overturns the order for destruction of the animal, the animal shall be released to the owner after the owner has paid the costs of impoundment of the animal pending the hearing.

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

“Entry and search

337.5(1) A peace officer or a designated officer who has reasonable grounds for believing that an animal is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of and is in or on any premises other than a private dwelling may, with or without a warrant:

- (a) enter the premises;
- (b) search for the animal; and
- (c) either impound the animal or, if there is an order to destroy or otherwise dispose of the animal, deliver the animal to the person appointed in the order to destroy or otherwise dispose of it.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a peace officer or designated officer shall not enter any place that is a private dwelling without:

- (a) the consent of the owner or occupant of the private dwelling; or
- (b) a warrant issued pursuant to subsection (3) authorizing the entry.

(3) If it appears to a justice of the peace or provincial court judge that, based on evidence presented by a peace officer or designated officer under oath, there are reasonable grounds to believe that an animal that is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of is in a private dwelling, the justice of the peace or provincial court judge may issue a warrant authorizing a peace officer or designated officer to enter the private dwelling specified in the warrant and search for the animal.

(4) On issuance of a warrant pursuant to subsection (3), the peace officer or designated officer may:

- (a) enter the private dwelling;
- (b) search for the animal; and
- (c) either impound the animal or, if there is an order to destroy or otherwise dispose of the animal, deliver the animal to the person appointed in the order to destroy or otherwise dispose of it.

“Destruction of animal

337.6(1) A peace officer or designated officer may destroy or seize and impound any animal that, in the opinion of the officer:

- (a) is injuring or viciously attacking a person or a domestic animal;
- (b) is wandering at large or in a pack and posing an imminent threat to the safety of persons in the city; or
- (c) is rabid or exhibiting symptoms of rabies.

(2) A peace officer or designated officer who, acting in good faith, destroys an animal pursuant to subsection (1) is not liable to the owner for the value of the animal.

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

(3) If an animal is seized and impounded in accordance with subsection (1), the city must immediately notify the owner of the animal, if known, and:

- (a) release the animal back to the owner as soon as is reasonably practicable, unless prevented by an order made pursuant to subsection 337.2(5); or
- (b) begin the necessary steps to:
 - (i) declare the animal dangerous pursuant to subsection 337.2(1); and
 - (ii) obtain or issue an order pursuant to subsection 337.2(5).

(4) If, after making reasonable efforts to locate the owner, the city is unable to locate an owner of an animal seized pursuant to this section, the peace officer or designated officer may destroy the animal.

“Action for damages

337.7 In an action brought to recover damages for injuries to persons or property caused by an animal, it is not necessary for the person injured to prove that the animal is, or that the owner knew that the animal was:

- (a) of a dangerous or mischievous nature; or
- (b) accustomed to doing acts causing injury.

“Bylaws concerning animal control

337.8(1) Without limiting the generality of clause 8(1)(k), a council may pass a bylaw respecting all or any of the following matters:

- (a) persons who own or harbour animals;
- (b) the number or type of animals owned or harboured by any person;
- (c) animals being at large;
- (d) persons who permit animals to be at large;
- (e) the seizing, impounding, destruction or other disposition of animals found at large.

(2) A council may, by resolution, declare that an animal is dangerous in accordance with subsection 337.2(1) and make any orders pursuant to clause 337.2(5)(a) if council has adopted an animal control bylaw that:

- (a) respecting a declaration pursuant to subsection 337.2(1):
 - (i) provides that notice must be given to the owner of the animal including reasons for the declaration; and
 - (ii) provides that an opportunity must be given for the owner to appeal the declaration;

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

- (b) respecting orders made pursuant to clause 337.2(5)(a):
 - (i) provides that the order must specify the time given to comply with the order and the manner in which compliance must be demonstrated;
 - (ii) provides that an opportunity must be given for the owner to provide relevant information or documents needed to appeal the order or request that the order be altered; and
 - (iii) provides that the order must describe the consequences of failure to comply with the order.
- (3) A bylaw mentioned in subsection (2) may:
 - (a) include a requirement that the owner must demonstrate compliance with an order made pursuant to clause 337.2(5)(a), failing which non-compliance is presumed;
 - (b) provide that the city may seize the animal until the owner has demonstrated compliance;
 - (c) provide that the city may recover its expenses of seizure, impoundment and other animal care expenses from the owner as a bylaw fine; or
 - (d) provide that an order may be made pursuant to clause 337.2(5)(a) in the absence of the owner, if the owner fails to respond to the notice given by the city.
- (4) A bylaw mentioned in subsection (2) may not authorize an order pursuant to clause 337.2(5)(b)".

New section 317

3-48 Section 317 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Collection from oil or gas well

317(1) If taxes levied in any year with respect to the resource production equipment of a petroleum oil or gas well remain unpaid after that year, the administrator may serve notice on any person who purchases oil or gas from the owner or operator who has failed to pay the taxes levied on the resource production equipment that there are unpaid taxes on the resource production equipment.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a municipality may request any of the information mentioned in subsections 201(8) and (8.1) from:

- (a) the owner or operator of the resource production equipment of a petroleum oil or gas well;
- (b) the owner of land on which the petroleum oil or gas well is situated if the owner is different from the owner mentioned in clause (a);
- (c) any person who purchases oil or gas from the owner or operator of the petroleum oil or gas well;
- (d) any person who purchases oil or gas that originated in a well with respect to which the resource production equipment was used from a party other than the owner or operator of the petroleum oil or gas well;
- (e) any other municipality in which the owner or operator of the petroleum oil or gas well owns property or conducts operations, including a municipality in another jurisdiction; or
- (f) a provincial or federal government ministry, agency or department.

(3) Section 202 applies to any person who fails to provide the information requested pursuant to clause (2)(a), (b), (c) or (d) within the period requested or provides false information.

(4) The municipality may:

- (a) use or disclose the information mentioned in subsection 201(8) or (8.1) for the purpose of collecting tax arrears in accordance with this Act;
- (b) disclose the information mentioned in subsection 201(8) or (8.1) to any municipality in which the owner or operator of the petroleum oil or gas well owns property or conducts operations including a municipality in another jurisdiction.

MUNICIPALITIES MODERNIZATION AND RED TAPE REDUCTION ACT

(5) A municipality may post or advertise a request for information respecting an owner or operator who is in tax arrears or a purchaser of oil or gas from that owner or operator for the purpose of this section in any manner it considers appropriate.

(6) A notice served pursuant to subsection (1) must:

(a) identify the resource production equipment respecting which the owner or operator is in tax arrears; and

(b) state:

(i) the amount of the arrears of taxes claimed; and

(ii) the name and address of the owner or operator of the resource production equipment.

(7) On service of the notice, the purchaser of oil or gas from the owner or operator identified in the notice shall, as any moneys become owing from the purchaser to the owner or operator with respect to the purchases, remit the moneys to the municipality to the amount claimed in the notice.

(8) On service of the notice, a purchaser of oil or gas from the owner or operator identified in the notice is personally liable to the municipality to the amount of the purchase price of all oil or gas subsequently purchased by that purchaser from the owner or operator to the amount of the arrears of taxes claimed in the notice.

(9) If a person uses an intermediary to purchase oil or gas from the owner or operator identified in the notice, that person is considered a purchaser for the purposes of this section.

(10) The purchaser may deduct from the amount owing from that purchaser to the owner or operator identified in the notice any sums paid by that purchaser to the municipality pursuant to the notice, and those sums are deemed to be a payment on account of the oil or gas purchased by that purchaser.

(11) Any costs and expenses incurred by a municipality pursuant to this section may be added to the arrears and collected in the same manner as any unpaid taxes.

(12) Nothing in this section prevents a municipality from exercising any other right or method available pursuant to any Act or regulation to collect unpaid taxes”.

Section 364 amended

3-49 Subsection 364(1) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(1) If a designated officer finds that a person is contravening this Act or a bylaw, the designated officer may, by written order:

(a) require the owner or occupant of the land, building or structure to which the contravention relates to remedy the contravention; or

(b) if the contravention was committed by the owner or occupant of land adjacent to Crown land or municipal land and the contravention affects the Crown land or municipal land, require the owner or occupant of the adjacent land to remedy the contravention”.
